The Pastor's Musings—

PART ONE: THE PROFESSION OF FAITH
Chapter 1: Man's Capacity for God

The Desire for God

The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to Himself. Only in God will he find the truth and happiness he never stops searching for:

"The dignity of man rests above all on the fact that he is called to communion with God. This invitation to converse with God is addressed to man as soon as he comes into being. For if man exists., it is because God has created him through love, and through love continues to hold him in existence. He cannot live fully according to truth unless he freely acknowledges that love and entrusts himself to his creator" (Gaudium et Spes, #19).

In many ways, throughout history down to the present day, men have given expression to their quest for God in their religious beliefs and behavior: in their prayers, sacrifices, rituals, meditations, and so forth. These forms of religious expression, despite the ambiguities they often bring with them, are so universal that one may well call man a religious being:

From one ancestor [God] made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and He allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for Him and find Him—though indeed He is not far from each one of us. For in "in Him we live and move and have our being"(Acts 17:26-28).

But this "intimate and vital bond of man to God" (GS, #19, 1) can be forgotten, overlooked, or even explicitly rejected by man. Such attitudes can have different causes: revolt against evil in the world; religious ignorance or indifference; the cares and riches of this world; the scandal of bad example on the part of believers; currents of thought hostile to religion; finally, that attitude of sinful man which makes him hide from God out of fear and flee his call.

On Saturday, November 21st

(Memorial of the Presentation of the Virgin Mary in the Temple),

WORLD DAY OF CLOISTERED LIFE

will be celebrated. It is an ecclesial event for all Catholics worldwide to commemorate the hidden lives of contemplative religious in cloisters and monasteries. This event has always been a day for religious men and women to consecrate themselves to God, in imitation of the Virgin Mary. We celebrate this day because the contemplative life is a gift from God to us all, because the entire world spiritually benefits from the prayers and sacrifices of these dedicated religious, even when we do not know it. On this day, the faithful are encouraged to reach out to the cloistered religious in their diocese,

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Recently, two consecrated hosts have been found on the floor in the church, so we want to remind everyone that when we receive communion, the bread and wine are consecrated to become the sacred Body and Blood of Christ. To receive Him in the Eucharist:

1. APPROACH the Host or Precious Blood...
2. BOW: This is not a profound bow, but a bow of your head only, to the Host or Precious Blood (NOT to the back of the person in front of you). The Eucharistic Minister will say, "The Body (Blood) of Christ."
3. RESPOND: "Amen," which indicates your belief that this small wafer or wine are now in reality the Body and Blood of Christ. After you say "Amen," the minister will give you Communion. To receive the host, rest one hand on top of the other where the minister will place the host. Moving toward the Precious Blood or your seat, IMMEDIATELY consume the host. For the Precious Blood, receive the chalice from the minister after saying "Amen". Drink. Return the chalice carefully to the minister.

Neither adults nor children should return to the pew with the host still in hand, unconsumed. Children who have not received the sacrament of Holy Eucharist may receive a blessing, but not a host.

Prayer Chain

If you would like to be a part of the Prayer Chain, or have a prayer request, all that's required is to have a computer with internet access, an email address, a compassionate heart, and willingness to pray for others (no phone trees). Send requests to:

Journey of Faith - Parish Library

Have you thought about strengthening and broadening your faith? Reading about the saints and their lives is one way to inspire you. To make your journey of faith more enjoyable, the library is in the process of updating, organizing, and rearranging our growing inventory of books and videos to better serve parishioners. In order to smooth the process, we are seeking a couple of volunteers who can help with this important apostolate. Initially, the goal will be to ensure materials are correctly categorized. Beyond that, we envision publishing an index of available titles, authors, and topics on the parish website.

If you would like to help, please contact Kay Dahms at (kdahms@mac.com) or through the parish office.

Due to the large amount of book donations we have received, and have yet to process into our library, we are currently not accepting any book donations until further notice.*

Religious Education the Family Way
Family Faith Formation

Ten families have begun the journey of preparing their children to receive Reconciliation and Holy Communion. They will be guiding their children into a deeper understanding of the Catholic faith while also examining their own faith journeys.

Questions that we rarely ask ourselves but need to understand are important throughout our lives. Such as: Why be Catholic? Why am I choosing this path for myself and my children? How much has my faith really guided me in my life? You can be present for these families by praying for them and by asking yourself these same questions. How long has it been since you've wondered why?

This month we are focusing on the theme: God, Our Father and Creator. It's amazing how present the Father is in all of creation, the plants, the animals, the clouds and even the ground beneath our feet. Make time this month to take a quiet walk outside and allow yourself to be truly amazed.

Family Faith Formation is a ministry at Corpus Christi that is dedicated to bringing the faith into the homes of our children. Questions? Contact Suzanne Hensel, Coordinator of Family Ministry and Children's Sacrament Preparation at:
shensel@cccctucson.org
